

INTRODUCTION

Company and also geographical collections have actually shown to be a reliable regional financial development tool, in particular in peripheral/less competitive locations, where the concentration of interconnected companies, vendors and linked establishment in certain areas enhance the productivity where companies, specifically SMEs, can compete at nationwide, EU and global levels.

Clusters can add to regional financial development via boosting the performance of firms, driving innovation in their respective field and also promoting new businesses.

CLUSTERS-CORD is an interregional cooperation task making up 10 partners as well as covering 8 nations, collectively seeking answers to boost local capability in the administration as well as advancement of clusters, with the exchange of experiences and great methods and also development of direct participation amongst existing actors.

This objective is gotten to by means of the promo of the exchange of finest techniques in collection administration, along with improving teamwork among clusters from the same thematic fields yet various geographical beginning.

The concrete activities of the jobs acting towards the established objectives were the following

Collection of Best Practices Benchmarking research study and also seminar Creation of Meta clusters The Clusters-Cord job concentrates on the following industries of industry: Energy as well as atmosphere Info and also communications innovation Health scientific researches.

Food market Tourism BEST METHODS As a result of the project practice-oriented ideal practices have been recognized as well as composed in a combined layout covering a wide variety of thematic and also management areas such as food security, energy, biotechnological study, culture and education in addition to task collection, advertising.

Action organization

BENCHMARKING. An important outcome of the job is the Benchmarking Research study providing the current state of play of the involved collections both in regards to thematic protection, monitoring structures, and also abilities. The research additionally developed tactical proposals for policy growth. The adhering to figure presents the classification of the policy related issues.

Source: Created by Mid-Pannon Regional Growth Co, Benchmarking Research. Based on joint research & evaluation was performed concentrating on collection policies, environment, monitoring frameworks, teamwork tasks, given services, cluster unusual.

META CLUSTERS. The teamwork of interregional stars is promoted via the creation of "Clusters-Cord Metaclusters", with the help of the interregional teamwork and also networking among various actors thinking about the cluster-development in CE Location.

1. Meta-cluster is a team of comparable companies, especially clusters gathered together and sharing their understanding to enhance the results in their specific sector.

2. It is a type of multinational clusters collaboration based upon the cooperation of collections from the same sectors from various CE areas.

Assistance of developing of meta-clusters in vital sectors in lasting means is extremely efficient method to increase the competitiveness of Central Europe. Meta Cluster is in reality a calculated Network, making every effort in the direction of combining private purposes to support various collections. Creation of meta-cluster brought a lot of advantages to participants of each collection as well as most of all it was the primary step in the internationalization tasks.

4 Teamwork Agreements were signed in the adhering to markets

Energy and also Environmental. Food Industry. ICT. Tourist Market. The goal of these arrangements is to foster international co-operations and collaborations amongst collections as well as SMEs, to sustain advancement by carrying out usual solutions, tasks as well as policies; to up-scale the outcomes of technology and to carry out common ingenious tasks increasing the.

Innovativeness as well as competitiveness; to include the plan makers at regional, national and European level, connected organizations as well as various other appropriate actors right into the continual process of improvement of the conditions. DIFFICULTIES, OBJECTIVES, INSTRUMENTS.

Challenges in addition to objective and tools mirror the certain regional conditions under which actors of the job functioned. At the same time there are some common areas that appeared at a number of partners which deserve taking into account upon thinking of the future of plan development.